

Join/Renew Process

If you already have an account, you will be prompted to log in using your username and password.

The image shows a login form for the Water Environment Federation. The form is centered on a background of water with bubbles. At the top of the form is the Water Environment Federation logo, which consists of a blue stylized 'W' followed by the text 'Water Environment Federation' and the tagline 'the water quality people' in a smaller font. Below the logo are two input fields: the first is labeled 'Username' with a person icon on the left and a yellow eye icon on the right; the second is labeled 'Password' with a lock icon on the left and a yellow eye icon on the right. Below these fields is a dark blue button with the text 'Log in' in white. At the bottom of the form, there is a link that says 'Forgot your password? Not a member?'.

If you do not have an account, you will be prompted to provide your first name, last name, email address, Username and Password.

If you do not have an account you will complete this form.

Code of Conduct

The Water Environment Federation (WEF) is committed to providing a professional, safe, and welcoming environment for all who participate in WEF activities. WEF members are expected to uphold WEF's commitment to providing a safe and supportive environment for all WEF members and others affiliated with WEF. This includes, but is not limited to, conduct such as exhibiting common courtesy and civility at WEF functions; acting in a businesslike, ethical and professional manner; supporting diversity, equity and inclusion throughout WEF and in WEF activities; and refraining from discriminatory or harassing behavior directed towards anyone participating in WEF activities. Pursuant to this Code, the WEF Board of Trustees is empowered to investigate complaints of misconduct, and members who do not uphold the Code may be subject to loss of WEF membership. WEF's Code of Conduct may be accessed here: www.wef.org/wef-member-code-of-conduct. Thank you for your WEF membership and thank you for being part of creating a safe and welcoming environment for all who participate in WEF.
